

105' x 37'

Small Meeting areas located within a group space provide excellent spaces to place the WalkStation. These spaces allow a variety of users to perform tasks near their primary workspace while walking. Used in conjunction with Room Wizard reservation devices, these spaces give the community of users a place to work that lets them do anything from concentrated work to conference calls while walking - reducing fatigue and stress.

Primary Work Dynamic

Work Process

Activities Performed

General Computing
Phone/Conference Calls
Reading

Solve User Needs

Increase satisfaction
Relieve strain of sedentary postures
Relieve Fatigue and Stress
Support diverse needs of users
Make work a positive place to be
Enable healthier ways of performing job tasks

User Experience

Space to perform computing tasks, space to perform paper based tasks, provides space to support diatic work, aid in relieving fatigue and stress, build trust and employer loyalty, energize user, improve creativity.